DOMESTIC DRAMA.

Minnie K. Wetmore Granted a Divorce
—A Hudson Girl.

There are many Summit county people who are acquainted with the principles to the following domestic drama the details of which are given in a special from Cleveland. It reads:

Judge Neff granted the cross-petition of Minnie K. Wetmore praying for a divorce from Claude H. Wetmore. The latter entered a petition for divorce from his wife, charging her with wilful absence. She replied with a cross-petition, accusing him of deserting her and in no way providing for her support. Mrs. Wetmore's parents live at Hudson, O. At present she resides at the Waldorf-Astoria, in New York city, and supports herself by furnishing wealthy homes. Wetmore is a newspaper man in St. Louis. He gained much notoriety from his connection with affairs in Hawaii at the time the attempt was made to depose President Dole.

it with great benefit. Use and see the package. Try it. Ask for GRAIN-O.

INDIA

Is Moving Forward.

Has Advanced Rapidly
In Civilization.

Schools and Colleges Are Being Built.

Interesting Address by Well Known Missionary,

Who Has Spent Many Years in the Far East.

Miss Isabelle Thoburn of India, spoke at the First M. E. church Sunday morning on "India."
She first went to India about 30 years ago, and ever since then has been doing missionary work there.

She told of the rapid strides that are being made in that country, along the lines of better citizenship. She also told of their faults and the various troubles experienced.

According to her theory India is not a far off country any more. It is brought as near to the people by the newspaper dispatches, as the nearby city or village. The "open door" policy has been advocated and should it go into effect it will mean much for the extension of the commerce of the United States.

The wonderful growth of India and its advances in a Christian way have been noticeable in the last 15 years.
"When I first went to North India 30 years ago," Miss Thoburn said, "I attended a conference while in session.
It consisted of less than 25 people. Today there are six conferences in that same place."

She praised the work done by the women of India, stating that their influence with the male sex was wonderful. The women's Foreign Missionary Society divides its work in four classes, evangelistic, educational, literary and social. The evangelistic work consists of going from house to house in an effort to convert the heathens. Children are taught each day to read the Bible and study their Sunday school lessons.
These children, who become quite proficient in the teachings of the Bible, are requested to teach their parents what they were unable to learn when they were young. All the young folks want to learn English. Schools and colleges are springing up in various parts of the country.

When Miss Thoburn arrived in India she became acquainted with Mrs. Dr.
Clarence Swain, the first lady missionary to India. It was Mrs. Swain who was given a jewel by the natives of India, to give to Queen Victoria. She related the story of the suffering of the natives and Her Majesty immediately began preparing for the erection of an institution of learning, so that they could become educated and better able to learn to take care of themselves.

The present famine and plague of India was mentioned. She said the plague was due mostly to the uncleanliness and lack of enforcing the sanitary laws.

Use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at once, if your child has croup or bronchitis.
Waste no time; delay may be dangerous. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures at once. It is a safe and infallible remedy. All druggists sell it for 25 cents.

At The Grand.

That the earnest handling of religious themes and the portrayal of religious characters before the footlights is not in doubtful taste is thoroughly proven by the success which has greeted Chas.
W. Chase's dramatization of Henry Sienkiewicz's famous novel, "Quo Vadis." It is everywhere described as a wonderful production, reverently played, finely staged and beautifully costumed, filled with interest and so realistic that once seen it can never be forgotten. The prayer scene by the Apostle Peter in the third act is so beautiful in its simplicity that nothing can exceed the intense devotional stillness with which it is received by the audience. It is a play in which those in front live the scenes with the actors and everything else is forgotten in the keen interest felt. It will be presented at the Grand Tuesday evening.
